Sales Manager

NES is one of the UKs leading manufacturers of retail and graphics displays, signage schemes, LED lighting and light walls, architectural facades, rainscreen cladding & architectural graphic features. Based in Essex and working from our 100,000 sq ft facility we have worked on prestigious architectural and display projects both in the UK and Europe.

Due to restructuring of the company we are now looking to recruit a Sales Manager. The role will require you to introduce new business whilst providing leadership and management to our sales team.

The ideal candidate must have current working experience within our industry and be able to demonstrate a high level of technical competence. Excellent management skills, coupled with the ability to motivate staff and communicate across all levels are key to the success of the individual. The role would suit someone who is dynamic and outgoing, with the ability to recognise and target market sectors that have potential to NES whilst still achieving monthly budgets. Self motivated and able work on their own initiative, the role would suit someone looking to progress their career in a fast moving design led company

If you feel you could contribute to the success of NES and enjoy a challenge please send your CV and a covering letter to Jon Baker.
